

Seeking Students With Dyslexia to Participate in a Research Study

The Study Description:

The purpose of this study is to investigate the experience of having dyslexia. This study will explore the experience of having dyslexia and the impact it has on a person's sense of who they are. The goal of the study will be to provide a description of the experience of having dyslexia, an understanding of how dyslexic students ascribe successes and failures, and information regarding how a person's knowledge about dyslexia impacts the above findings.

Benefits of the Study:

By participating in this study you will be helping researchers better understand the experience of having dyslexia. You may feel a sense of pride from contributing your experience to promote greater knowledge of dyslexia.

What participation involves:

You will be asked to participate in a one-on-one interview in person or on the telephone with the study author, a doctoral student in psychology. The interview will last between 30 minutes and 1 hour. You will be asked questions about your experience with having dyslexia and the interview will be kept confidential.

Compensation:

All participants will be provided a $15 gift card to Starbucks Coffee as a thank you for participation and to respect your time commitment. All participants will be provided, if they so wish, with a copy of the doctoral paper.

For more information please call:

Jonathan Barkin, M.A., Doctoral Student

Phone: (303) 825-1941

Email: jbarkin@du.edu